

358

ROSIN THE BOW

INTRO D x 4

9.09.25

Strum 1 2 & 3 &

VERSE 1

D

Bm

I've travelled all over this wide world, and now to another I'll go,

D

G D

A

D

I know that good quarters are waiting to welcome old Rosin the Bow.

G

D

Bm

To welcome old Rosin the Bow, to welcome old Rosin the Bow.

D

G D

A

D

I know that good quarters are waiting to welcome old Rosin the Bow

VERSE 2

D

Bm

When I'm dead and laid out on the counter, a voice you will hear from below,

D

G D

A

D

Saying send down a hogshead of whiskey take a drink with old Rosin the Bow.

D

G

D

Bm

Take a drink with old Rosin the Bow, take a drink with old Rosin the Bow.

D

G D

A

D

Saying send down a hogshead of whiskey, take a drink with old Rosin the Bow.

VERSE 3

D

Bm

Then get a half-dozen stout fellows, and line them all up in a row.

D

G D

A

D

Let them drink out of half-gallon bottles to the memory of Rosin the Bow.

G

D

Bm

To the memory of Rosin the Bow, to the memory of Rosin the Bow.

D

G D

A

D

Let them drink out of half-gallon bottles to the memory of Rosin the Bow.

*Instrumental over VerseVERSE 4

D Bm

Then get these half-dozen stout fellows, and let them all stagger and go,

D G D A D
 And dig a great hole in the meadow and in it put Rosin the Bow.

G D Bm
 And in it put Rosin the Bow, and in it put Rosin the Bow.

D G D A D
 Let them dig a great hole in the meadow and in it put Rosin the Bow

VERSE 5

D Bm

Well I hear the old tyrant approaching, that cruel remorseless old foe,

D G D A D
 I lift up me glass in his honour take a drink with old Rosin the Bow

G D Bm
 Take a drink with old Rosin the Bow, take a drink with old Rosin the Bow.

D G D A D
 I lift up me glass in his honour take a drink with old Rosin the Bow.

OUTRO:

D G D Bm

Take a drink with old Rosin the Bow, take a drink with old Rosin the Bow.

D G D A D D/
 I lift up me glass in his honour, take a drink with old Rosin the Bow (slowing)